1988 NCAA Division II National Coach of the Year

1987, 1988 North Central Conference Coach of the Year

2019 Inductee, Illinois State Athletics Hall of Fame

Before arriving at Michigan State, Cathy George had already established herself as one of the more well-respected coaches in the sport. Her 14 years on the MSU sideline has seen the Spartans ascend to one of the elite programs in the country. With NCAA appearances in seven of the last eight years (including three trips to the Sweet 16 and an NCAA Regional Final appearance in 2017), she has guided the Spartans to the most wins of any Michigan State head coach in program history.

More than just wins and losses, George has insisted on a level of accomplishments not only on the court, but in the classroom and community. George, her staff, and her players are mainstays in community outreach events, and can boast some of the most impressive academic accomplishments of any team at Michigan State. George's players include 79 Academic All-Big Ten selections, four Academic All-Americans, and 22 Big Ten Distinguished Scholars over 14 seasons.

Every year, George's teams have attracted rapidly growing crowds to Jenison Field House, ranking in the top-25 in Division I attendance in each of the last 21 years. The Spartans ranked eighth nationally in average attendance, (3,069), as 39,901 fans took in a volleyball match at Jenison Field House in 2018, the 12th highest total among Division I programs. The Spartans have ranked among the top 12 in total attendance in each of the last nine years, and have spent the last four seasons among the top 10 in the nation in average attendance.

Under George's tutelage, her program's involvement in community activities has also helped grow MSU's fan base. Last year alone, the Spartans participated in community outreach for EVE (End Violent Encounters), the Capital Region Humane Society, and several team members spent their spring break on a Habitat for Humanity build in Tupelo, Miss.

George currently boasts a career record of 631-414, and is 273-188 while at MSU. She ranks 15th among active coaches for total wins in NCAA Division I volleyball, and ranks among the top 80 coaches all-time with a career .606 winning percentage. On November 11, 2017, she became the winningest head coach in MSU history with her 251st victory as the head coach of the Spartans - surpassing Annelies Knoppers (250-197-18, 1974-84).

The head coach, with 14 years of tenure at Michigan State, has helped MSU to perhaps its longest stretch of sustained success. MSU's streak of seven consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances from 2011-17 is the second-longest in school history. In addition, MSU, Nebraska, and Penn State were the only teams to finish .500 or better in Big Ten play in that stretch.

The 2018 season was a reloading one for the Spartans, who improved exponentially throughout the season after the departure of seven seniors - all starters - from the previous season. With the youngest roster in the Big Ten - MSU had just 40 combined games of Big Ten experience entering the season - the Spartans completed their season with a 17-16 overall record. MSU won three in-season tournament titles before battling through the grind of a Big Ten season that sent seven teams into the NCAA Tournament field, with two advancing to the Final Four.

The accolades for MSU's 2017 Elite Eight squad made the group one of the most decorated in program history, second to the 1995 Final Four squad. Going 24-9 overall and 14-6 in the Big Ten, MSU finished fourth in the grind of Conference play, and earned the fourth-most Conference wins in program history and the most since 1998. The trip to the NCAA Regional Final was MSU's first since 1996, and its final ranking of No. 8 in the final AVCA national poll was also the highest for the program since the 1996 season. The seven seniors in the Class of 2017 amassed 87 victories, the second-most for a senior class in George's tenure.

MSU had four players earn All-America honors, which included Second Team kudos for Alyssa Garvelink, becoming the fourth player in program history to make the first, second, or third team in multiple seasons in MSU history. Autumn Bailey completed her collegiate career with a Second Team honor after three Honorable Mention nods, Rachel Minarick bookmarked her career with a second Honorable Mention Selection, and Holly Toliver was an Honorable Mention pick for the first time in her career. Minarick also earned First Team CoSIDA Academic All-America honors - just the second player in program history to earn a place on the ultra-competitive First Team. Garvelink and Bailey (First Team), were joined by Minarick and Toliver (Honorable Mention) on the All-B1G team, MSU's most picks in a single season since 2000. Six players also earned Academic All-Big Ten honors, as the team upheld its impressive play on the court with a fall semester record 3.42 team GPA in the classroom - the highest team fall GPA in program history.

In 2016, MSU finished the season with a 25-9 record, recording the most regular-season victories (24) for a Spartan team since 1996. The 25 victories also tied the most under George at the helm. MSU was the overall No. 9 seed in the NCAA Tournament and hosted for the just the fifth time in school history and the first time since 2003. Alyssa Garvelink was named a First Team All-Big Ten selection and also a Second Team AVCA All-American, while Autumn Bailey was an Honorable Mention. In addition, Allyssah Fitterer earned her fourth consecutive All-Region honor, capturing the Big Ten Sportsmanship Award as well.

In 2015, the Spartans overcame a host of frustrating injuries to maintain their fifth consecutive season of .500 or better in the Big Ten, going 19-14 and 10-10 in Conference play. The Spartans faced a showdown with the nation's No. 1 team in the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the second straight season, and fell to Washington in Seattle, 3-1. George won her 200th match at Michigan State on Oct. 14, 2015, when the Spartans downed visiting Maryland.

Senior Maggie Halloran earned the Big Ten Postgraduate Scholarship at the conclusion of the 2015-16 academic year- she was the top female GPA recipient at the Student-Athlete Support Services (SASS) Academic Gala and maintained a perfect 4.0 GPA over her four seasons.

The Spartans boasted three Honorable Mention All-America selections in 2014 (tying its program best), and pushed top overall seed Stanford before falling in four sets to the Cardinal in the NCAA Tournament. During the season, senior Kori Moster cemented her spot in B1G volleyball lore, finishing third all-time in Conference history in career digs.

The 2013 season was a banner year for the Spartans, who advanced to the Sweet 16 for the second consecutive season and boasted three All-America selections. MSU went 11-1 in the pre-Big Ten portion of its schedule, capturing the Spartan Invitational and Butler Invitational Tournament titles and defeating the NCAA runner-up in 2012, No. 12 Oregon. The team then started the Big Ten season 6-0 and was ranked as high as fifth in the country; the Spartans opened the conference slate with an upset of No. 1 Penn State (3-1) on its home court, and capped its 6-0 start with a 3-1 home win over then-No. 9 Nebraska. In the NCAA Tournament, MSU downed Ohio and host No. 17 Kentucky in the first weekend, but fell to No. 2 Penn State in the round of 16.

The individual accolades poured in for MSU over the course of the season. Junior libero Kori Moster earned her second straight Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year honor, was an All-America selection, and was one of 12 players selected by USA Volleyball for the U.S. Collegiate National Team to tour China in June 2014. Lauren Wicinski completed her career with All-America honors for the fourth season in her career, and was a unanimous First Team All-Big Ten selection. Classmate Alexis Mathews earned her first-ever All-Big Ten accolades and was an honorable mention All-America pick, while earning a spot in the USA Volleyball training block in the spring of 2014. Meanwhile, co-captain Kristen Kelsay was an Academic All-America selection, captured the Gwendolyn Norrell Community Service & Leadership Award at the Student-Athlete Support Services Academic Gala for excelling in the field of community service and outreach, then won both the Chester Brewer Leadership Award as well as the Dr. James Feurig Achievement Award (honoring dedication, honesty, academic achievement, and perseverance), two of MSU's major athletic awards, at the end of the 2013-14 academic year. In addition, she was named the Detroit Athletic Club Female College Athlete of the Year as well as the recipient of a Big Ten Postgraduate Scholarship. .

George and her team celebrate her 251st victory at Michigan State, making her the all-time winningest coach in MSU history.

George with 2009 All-American Kyndra Abron

The 2012 edition of the Spartans opened the NCAA Tournament with a 3-2 win over No. 18 San Diego and then upset defending national champion UCLA on its home floor, 3-1, in-route to the Sweet 16. The Spartans opened the season on a 12-match win streak that included four in-season tournament titles. George won her 500th match at Iowa, and the Spartans swept Michigan on its home floor. Kori Moster earned Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year, and was Honorable Mention both in the Big Ten and on the AVCA All-America team. Junior outside hitter Lauren Wicinski earned First Team All-Big Ten and Second Team AVCA honors, the first time since 1995 that two Spartans were named AVCA All-Americans in the same season.

The Spartans were in the NCAA Tournament in 2011, the ninth trip for George and her fourth at the helm of MSU. Michigan State started the season with six straight wins and two tournament titles, Jenilee Rathje, one of the most decorated players in program history, was recognized as a third-team AVCA All-American and was a unanimous selection to the All-Big Ten First Team for the second straight season. The 2010 Spartans closed out the 2010 campaign by winning four of their final six matches, highlighted by an impressive 3-0 win over then-No. 19 Michigan on Senior Night at the Breslin Center, before a record-setting crowd of 6,824. As a result of the 3-0 win, MSU regained the "State Pride Flag" for the first time since 2006. Redshirt junior Jenilee Rathje became the 17th player in program history to amass 1,000-career kills as she earned unanimous first team All-Big Ten honors as well as being named an AVCA All-Mideast Region honorable mention selection. Kyndra Abron was named to the COBRA Magazine Midwest All-Region Team while freshman Alexis Mathews was an honorable mention selection.

In 2009, the Spartans won their first 12 matches of the season and made their third NCAA Tournament appearance over four seasons MSU posted upset wins over No. 12 Southern California and No. 12 Illinois in the B1G home opener. Kyndra Abron was an Honorable mention AVCA All-America.

In 2008, George brought the No. 7-ranked recruiting class onto campus, helping MSU compile a 15-16 overall record, despite playing five freshmen for most of the season. George spent the spring of 2008 coaching the USA A2 Red team to the USA Adult Open Championship. The USA A2 Red Team topped the University of Washington's Huskies VBC team, 3-1, in Atlanta. George's A2 Red Team took home the gold, while the Blue team finished with the bronze. This was George's second stint with USA Volleyball, after serving as an assistant coach for the US team at the 1999 World University Games.

George guided the Spartans to the NCAA Regional Semifinals and a fifth-place finish in the Big Ten in 2007, going 21-14 overall. The Spartans entered postseason play in consecutive seasons for the first time since 2002-03. Under George's guidance, senior Ashley Schatzle became the Spartans' seventh AVCA All-American.

In George's first year as head coach in 2005, MSU finished the season with a 12-18 record, with Katie Johnson earning All-Big Ten Honorable Mention honors. A year later, George guided MSU to the 2006 NCAA Tournament, leading the Spartan squad to a 19-12 overall record, including a 10-10 mark in Big Ten play. The Green and White made its first trip to postseason play since the 2003 campaign. Ashley Schatzle earned All-Big Ten honors while Katie Johnson repeated as an Honorable Mention All-Big Ten pick, and competed with the U.S. Women's National Volleyball A2 Program during the summer of 2007. Vanessa King garnered 2006 All-Big Ten Freshman Team accolades.

Prior to her arrival at Michigan State, George spent 11 years guiding the Western Michigan University program, where she compiled a 185-139 record. Taking over the reins at WMU prior to the 1994 season, George's Broncos qualified for eight consecutive MAC Tournaments beginning with the 1997 campaign, and her Bronco squad made back-to-back MAC Tournament title match appearances in 1999 and 2000, capturing the title in 2000. George reached the 300-win mark in 2000, and was named the MAC Coach of the Year that same season after guiding the Broncos to the MAC title and NCAA Tournament.

George's student-athletes at WMU earned all-conference and national honors while enjoying academic success. Sixteen players earned academic all-conference honors during her time at Western Michigan, while four players were named to the CoSIDA Academic All-District team. On the court, George recruited high-caliber student-athletes, as three WMU players trained with various U.S. national teams. In 1999, two players were honored with the chance to compete with the Pan Am Games Training Team, while another Bronco was selected to the 2001 U.S. National A2 team. Western Michigan's success under George led to increased attendance, as the Broncos led the MAC in total attendance in eight of her 11 seasons.

From 1989-93, George was the head coach at Texas-Arlington and led UTA to the 1989 and 1990 NCAA Tournaments, with a school-record third-place national finish in 1989. With the Mavs, she became the first woman to coach in the NCAA Division I Final Four (1989) and she earned Southland Conference Coach of the Year honors three times (1989, 1990, `92) as she posted a record of 93-74 in her five seasons. George's teams won Southland Conference titles in 1989, 1990 and 1992, were 37-4 in conference play (.902), and finished with a 10-2 record in postseason competition during her tenure.

George got her start as a collegiate coach at North Dakota State in 1987-88, leading the Bison to an 87-11 (.888) record in her two seasons. In 1987, NDSU posted a 44-8 mark en route to a fifth-place finish at the NCAA Division II Championships, and went 43-3 in 1988, finishing third. She was named North Central Conference and regional Coach of the Year in both 1987 and 1988, as well as garnering NCAA Division II National Coach of the Year honors in 1988.

A 1985 graduate of Illinois State and four-year letterwinner in the volleyball program, George helped the Redbirds win three consecutive Missouri Valley Conference titles and NCAA Tournament appearances. A team captain and crafty outside attacker, she was a three-time All-MVC selection who earned all-region honors. - In replacing seven graduating seniors – all starters – from its 2017 Elite Eight squad, the Spartans fielded the youngest team in the Big Ten. The returning players on the 2018 team had a combined 65 sets of Big Ten match experience, and eight players saw their first-ever Big Ten action. MSU's roster featured one senior (Maggie Haggerty), two juniors, and 12 freshmen and sophomores.
- MSU went 12-1 in non-conference play. The Spartans won three straight non-conference tournament titles in the pre-conference portion of the schedule. MSU swept through the competition at the Carolina Classic, Fairfield Invitational, and Auto Owners Insurance Spartan Invitational, and finished second in the opening weekend at the Tennessee Classic.
- The always-difficult Big Ten gauntlet was a grind for the young Spartans, who showed significant growth throughout the weekly schedule against top-25 opponents. MSU's starting lineup featured one senior, two sophomores, and four freshmen.
- MSU ranked eighth nationally in average attendance, welcoming an average of 3,069 fans per match. Jenison Field House welcomed 39,901 fans over 13 matches, good for 12th nationally.
- Jamye Cox posted 416 digs, good for 10th in a single season in program history. Her 3.65 digs per set average over her first two collegiate seasons ranks fourth in that category among MSU's career leaders.
- Freshman Naya Gros led the team with a .331 hitting percentage, which is the best hitting percentage for a first-year player in program history. Her 143 total blocks ranks second for a freshman, and her blocks per set (1.19) fifth.
- In addition to Gros, both Rebecka Poljan and Molly Johnson made the top ten in the Spartan record book for blocks by a freshman. The pair was tied for sixth in block assists (87), with Poljan compiling 100 total (T-seventh) and Johnson 91 (10th).
- Elena Shklyar ranked fifth in MSU's freshman record book with 852 assists, and seventh with a 7.96 assists-per-set average.
- Junior Samantha McLean earned CoSIDA Third Team Academic All-America honors, giving the Spartans Academic All-America picks in consecutive seasons for the second time in program history.
- The Spartans had seven Academic All-Big Ten Selections (out of nine eligible players), the most since 2015.
- MSU had two Big Ten Distinguished Scholars, Samantha McLean and Lauren Swartz. Both are two-time recipients, and both boast 4.0 cumulative GPA's. Swartz earned her bachelor's degree in Economics in May 2018, completing it in just six semesters.
- Maddie Haggerty was honored as the Most Valuable Player at the annual team banquet in January. Alyssa Chronowski took home the Playmaker Award, and McLean and Swartz shared the Kirkby Scholar-Athlete honor. Sophomore Jamye Cox won the Extra Mile Award for the second straight season, as did McLean for the Most Inspirational.
- Naya Gros represented MSU on the 14-member Big Ten Foreign Tour, which brought representatives from each of the B1G institutions to Osaka, Kyoto, and Tokyo, Japan.

The Spartans celebrated the 2018 seaon at the annual team banquet in January.

STATE PRIDE SERIES

Michigan State and Michigan share a long history of rivalries in both academics and athletics. Beginning in 1990, the two state of Michigan Big Ten institutions began a "State Pride" season series to celebrate the in-state rivalry. A state of Michigan flag bearing the motto "Tuebor" or "I will defend," serves as a symbol of the volleyball rivalry with the winner of the season's face-to-face matches retaining possession of the flag for a year. The flag flew over the State Capitol on Sept. 18, 1990. In addition to the State flag, each school's winning year is listed on its half of a special Michigan State-Michigan banner.

- The school that wins both matches will be declared the "State Pride" winner.
- If teams split the matches, the school that wins the greatest number of games will be declared the "State Pride" winner.
- If both teams have won the same number of games, the school with the most total points is the "State Pride" winner.

SAMUEL L. STANLEY JR.

MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

Samuel L. Stanley Jr., M.D., was selected by the Michigan State University Board of Trustees as MSU's 21st president, effective Aug. 1, 2019, and appointed professor with tenure in the MSU College of Human Medicine.

Born in Seattle, Stanley earned a Bachelor of Arts in biological sciences (Phi Beta Kappa) from the University of Chicago. After earning his medical degree from Harvard Medical School in 1980, he completed resident-physician training at Massachusetts General Hospital and then went to Washing-ton University in St. Louis in 1983 for a School of Medicine fellowship in infectious diseases. There, he became a professor in the departments of both medicine and molecular microbiology in recognition of the collaborative nature of his research.

A distinguished biomedical researcher, Stanley was one of the nation's highest recipients of support from the National Institutes of Health for his research focusing on enhanced defense against emerging infectious diseases. He is an expert in the biological mechanisms that cells employ when responding to infectious agents such as parasites, bacteria and viruses — a process known as the inflammatory response. In 2006, Stanley was appointed vice chancellor for research at Washington University, serving in that position until he was appointed president of Stony Brook University in New York in 2009.

As the fifth president of Stony Brook, Stanley recorded the most successful fundraising year in the university's history and championed legislation that helped Stony Brook hire more than 240 new faculty over five years. He chaired the board of Brookhaven Science Associates, which manages Brookhaven National Laboratory on behalf of the U.S. Department of Energy.

Stanley is chair of the National Science Advisory Board for Biosecurity, which advises the United States government on issues related to the communication, dissemination and performance of sensitive biological research. He was a member of the National Advisory Allergy and Infectious Diseases Council at the NIH and a member of the NIH Director's Blue Ribbon Panel on the National Emerging Infectious Diseases Laboratories. He also serves as an ambassador for the Paul G. Rogers Society for Global Health Research and has received an Honorary Doctorate Degree in Science from Konkuk University in South Korea. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Association of American Universities and has served on the NCAA Board of Directors and NCAA Board of Governors.

A researcher, patent holder and former technology transfer executive, Stanley supports academic and industry collaborations to leverage both their economic impact and the potentially enormous contributions they can make to society. His extensive experience gives him invaluable perspective on the emerging field of translational research. Stanley also continues to work as a strong advocate for federal funding of basic research, working through organizations such as the Association of American Universities and The Science Coalition to promote the critical role of university research in innovation and discovery.

Stanley's wife, Ellen Li, M.D., Ph.D., is a distinguished biomedical researcher and gastroenterologist. Stanley and Li have four children.

Bill Beekman officially assumed the role of MSU's 19th athletics director on July 17, 2018. He was appointed interim athletic director on Feb. 5, 2018, before taking over the position full time.

Beekman is responsible for oversight of MSU's 25 varsity sports teams as well as the care of more than 700 Spartan student-athletes. He provides leadership in the areas of sports management, game operations, financial administration, personnel, advancement, corporate interaction, facility management, marketing and communication.

In his first full season as athletic director, the men's basketball team advanced to the Final Four and won Big Ten regular-season and tournament titles, men's soccer reached the College Cup for the first time since 1968, and the football team earned a bowl bid for the 11th time in the past 12 seasons. In addition, the men's and women's golf teams both played in the NCAA Regionals, the women's cross country team placed 11th at the NCAA Championships, and the women's basketball team earned a berth in the NCAA Tournament for the ninth time under head coach Suzy Merchant.

The Spartans were just as impressive off the field, posting the highest all-time cumulative grade-point average (3.1771) in the history of the athletic department during the 2019 spring semester. It also marked the 17th consecutive semester the department has achieved over a 3.00 cumulative GPA. Nineteen teams delivered a cumulative GPA over a 3.0, tying a department record, and an all-time high 88 students posted a perfect 4.0 semester GPA in the spring semester of 2019. Six student-athletes earned Academic All-America honors and 316 were recognized on the Academic All-Big Ten team. In addition, the men's basketball, men's swimming and diving and volleyball programs earned NCAA APR Public Recognition Awards (ranked among the top 10 percent of their sports in the most recent APR results).

MSU also measured at an all-time department high of 88 percent according to the NCAA's Graduation Success Rate (GSR) in 2018-19. MSU Athletics is succeeding at record levels in the Federal Graduation Rate (FGR) as well, posting record highs in both the four-year (75 percent) and single-year (80 percent) marks. The single-year 80 percent FGR topped the general student population for the first time (79 percent). The men's basketball program produced a perfect 100 percent GSR and the football program had an all-time high four-year FGR of 67 percent.

BILL BEEKMAN

MICHIGAN STATE DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

An MSU alumnus, Beekman has served his alma mater since 1995, assuming his most previous recent role as vice president and secretary of the Board of Trustees in 2008. Previously, he served as executive director of the MSU Alumni Association, senior adviser to the provost and assistant dean for finance in the College of Human Medicine. Beekman also served briefly as acting president at Michigan State University in January 2018.

Beekman received his MBA from the Kellogg School of Management at Northwestern University, his Juris Doctorate from Wayne State University Law School, and his undergraduate degree in justice, morality and constitutional democracy from James Madison College at MSU.

JENISON FIELD HOUSE

The Michigan State volleyball team has played nearly all of its home matches in historic Jenison Field House since 1993. Built in 1940, Jenison was the home of Spartan basketball until 1989 and is where Magic Johnson helped lead Michigan State to its first NCAA Championship in 1979. Jenison Field House is the competition venue not only for volleyball, but also for women's gymnastics, wrestling and men's and women's track & field. The building also houses locker rooms for baseball, women's rowing, soccer and softball.

Jenison Field House has undergone a thorough revitalization over the last 18 months not only to the offices and team areas, but also to arena surface in the field house itself. The main (second) floor of Jenison now houses coaches offices for several varsity sports (including volleyball), but also a student-athlete fueling station and study areas.

Thanks to the generosity of many volleyball donors, several upgrades were installed for the program in the summer of 2019. The volleyball locker room underwent a facelift with new furniture and upgrades in its video area, and a new Taraflex floor was installed on which the volleyball program will play its matches in 2019. A new track & field surface has also been installed, improving the competition venue for that sport and giving the entire arena a fresh new look with gray-and-green flooring.

For volleyball, the court runs north-south in the historic field house, and accommodates 4,900 fans in its courtside, reserved (chairback) and general-admission (bleacher) seating. Retractable bleachers frame the playing surface, featuring chair-back seating on the east and west ends. Jenison also received facelift with new banners in the rafters.

MSU last hosted NCAA Tournament matches in December 2016, welcoming Fairfield, Cleveland State, and Arizona to East Lansing for the first and second rounds of Tournament play. MSU also hosted NCAA tournament matches in 1995, 1996, 1998 and 2003.

The Spartan Side Out Club, the official booster club of Spartan volleyball, runs apparel sales at each home game to help raise funds for the MSU volleyball program. Kids Club members line the court on match day and provide support for the Spartans at Jenison.

Michigan State has routinely welcomed some of the top crowds in the collegiate game to Jenison Field House. The Spartans have been among the top 25 in national attendance over the last 16 seasons, with a program best 53,895 that came through the turnstiles in 2016. MSU has ranked among the top 10 in the nation in average attendance in each of the last four seasons, landing at eighth in 2018 with an average of 3,069 (eighth nationally) after ranking ninth in 2017 with an average of 3,141.

MSU's match vs. Michigan on Nov. 11, 2016 brought 6,.838 fans into the arena. This was not only a facility record for volleyball, but also improved upon the program record of 6,824 that came to the Breslin Center to cheer on the volleyball team against Michigan in November of 2010. That record-setting match vs. the Wolverines is believed to be the largest non-men's basketball crowd to take in a Spartan sporting event in Jenison Field House.

Fans will be treated to 14 regular-season home matches in 2019. Two of the four non-conference weekends will be played at Jenison Field House: the Spartans will welcome Indiana State, Cincinnati, and Tennessee for the Auto-Owners Insurance Spartan Invitational. Both Cincinnati and Tennessee finished in the RPI top 50 a year ago, and will help fill Jenison Field House with a great energy that will well prepare the Spartans for Big Ten play. A week later, MSU will welcome in-state rival Oakland and ACC opponent North Carolina, which will be one of three Sunday matinee games at Jenison this fall.

MSU's rigorous 10-game Big Ten home schedule will bring Maryland, Rutgers, Penn State, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Northwestern, Nebraska, Michigan, Indiana, and Purdue to East Lansing. MSU's Jam Jenison game - an annual sellout - will take place on Wednesday Nov. 20. Both Penn State (Oct. 20) and Minnesota (Oct. 27) will also be Sunday matinee games.

A new feature in the Spartan volleyball offices is the alumni wall, where former Michigan State players add their name to the Spartan helmet logo. Jenilee Rathje (L) and Halle Peterson (R) were recent additions when they came back to campus.

The Spartan Volleyball Kids Club lines the court to greet the team before home-match introductions.
